

Commission of Religious Leaders (CORN) Issue Statement on the Death of George Floyd

May 31, 2020

The Book of Ecclesiastes teaches us, "There is a time to be silent and a time to speak out." We of different faiths cannot remain silent after we watched the shattering video of a police officer keeping his knee on the neck of George Floyd who was crying out "I can't breathe." Such inhumane treatment of another human being requires a collective response from all people of conscience. The pursuit of justice is a fundamental tenet of our respective religious traditions, and thus we stand together to declare that all life is sacred, and all people are equal before the law in a democratic society.

We respect those who want to honor George Floyd's memory with peaceful protest against the horror, evil, and sin that is racism. We also support the members of Floyd's family who said, in part, "We cannot endanger each other as we respond to the necessary urge to raise our voices in unison and in outrage. Looting and violence distract from the strength of our collective voice."

We often speak of "thoughts and prayers." We will offer our many prayers of healing, but we need not only serious thoughts but also firm action as we work together with all members of our community to find that critical cure for human hatred.

Cardinal Timothy Dolan,
Chair

Rev. Dr. A.R. Bernard,
Sr., President

Rabbi Joseph Potasnik,
Vice President

Sincerely,

Office of the Superintendent of Schools

To honor our colleague, teacher, friend, we are asking if anyone has memories (a poem, a thought, a story, a picture) to share about

Mrs. Sandra Heaney

please send it to school by June 19th.

To show our love for her, a memory book will be made and presented to Mrs. Heaney's Family.

180 DAYS

The Superintendent of the Archdiocese wants to make sure that our students receive 180 days of instruction; therefore, the last day of school will be June 24th, not June 19th.

June 15-19 will now be full days and June 22-24 will be half days with summer fun activities planned.

There will be no ZOOM classes and no assigned work to turn in for the 22nd through 24th, however please make sure your child logs into each day for attendance purposes.
